Miss Lonelyhearts: Study Guide | SparkNotes

Miss Lonelyhearts is a product of social and literary currents of both the 1920s and the 1930s. From the thirties, West brought the scorn of artists for a commercialized culture which followed the gods of advertising slogans and adapted churchly religion to material values.

About Miss Lonelyhearts - cliffsnotes.com

As written by West, 'Miss Lonelyhearts' is really a novella, though it accomplishes a great deal of sober storytelling. At only 56 minutes, so does this film, bringing the viewer West's troubling vision of human nature: the emptiness, hopelessness and despair of the readers who write to 'Lonelyhearts', in the real hope the answers can actually help.
